AFTER July 1, 2008: Consolidation Incentives only -- student count based on number of students received by a consolidating district.

If two or more school districts consolidate after July 1, 2007, for the first year after consolidation, each new school district is entitled to one thousand dollars for each sending student included in the receiving district's fall enrollment for the first year after consolidation, up to a maximum of four hundred sending district students. If two or more school districts consolidate after July 1, 2007, for the second year after consolidation, each new school district is entitled to eight hundred dollars for each sending district student included in the receiving district's fall enrollment for the first year after consolidation, up to a maximum of four hundred district students. If two or more school districts consolidate after July 1, 2007, for the third year after consolidation, each new school district is entitled to four hundred dollars for each sending district student included in the receiving district's fall enrollment for the first year after consolidation, up to a maximum of four hundred district students.

For the purposes of the entitlement provided above, if a receiving district receives fewer than 10 sending district students, the receiving district is entitled to payment for ten sending district students.

The following terms mean:

- (1) "New school district," a school district which is formed as the result of a consolidation of two or more school districts;
- (2) "Receiving district," a new school district in which a secondary attendance center was operated prior to consolidation and is operated after consolidation;
- (3) "Sending district," a school district which is not a receiving school district whose land has become part of another school district; and
- (4) "Sending district student," a student who was included in the current fall enrollment as defined in § 13-13-10.1 of a sending school district for the school year prior to the first year the new school district operates.
